St. Tammany Fire Protection District No.1 Public Meeting Venue Changed

During the regular monthly meeting of the St. Tammany Fire District No. 1 Board of Commissioners on Tuesday, 18 October 2011, the BOC voted to change the location of their monthly meetings to the Towers Building. It is hoped that this location will provide the public with more convenient access to the meetings and encourage more public participation. This change in venue is consistent with our desire to be transparent and accessible. This change is to be effective beginning Tuesday, 15 November 2011, which is the next regularly scheduled meeting of the BOC.
