Slidell Fire Department receives Smoke Detector Grant from FM Global

Slidell, LA. On Thursday, December 19, 2013, St. Tammany Fire District #1 awarded a grant for $3,000 from FM Global for the purchase of smoke detectors. The grant will ensure that additional smoke detectors will be on hand in requests are received from needy families throughout the community. The smoke detectors will be available to Slidell residents while supplies last. St. Tammany Fire District #1 currently has an aggressive smoke detector installation program in place to help protect its citizens from the threat of fire. Anyone in Slidell that is in need of a smoke detector is asked to contact the St. Tammany Fire District #1 Headquarters at 985-646-4387.
